Introduction (Whole group)

Welcome and brief introduction

Each start with a name and activity they like to do. Next person should repeat all the names and their activities before they say theirs.

suggestion: Circle in circle. Where you make two circles of people one inside the other one and they rotate in the opposite direction from the other so you have to talk to everyone and introduce yourself as many times as people inside the other circle.

No circle just find a pair: they will have 1 minute to answer questions

Topics: 15

What concerns me (Whole group)

Start on how they are getting the news. Social media? TV? Printed newspaper? Friends? Family? Community? Online news? Youtube?

Do you think it is important to be aware of what is happening? Why?

Is ignorance/blindness towards problems bad? Why? If we don't harm anyone and just do our business?

Maybe they write it on post its then they stick it onto the flipchart...

Start with present, past, then future

Tips:

Past: Slavery, People against monarchy, Vaccination,

Womens' Suffrage, Civil rights movement in the US

Present: Immigration, Racism, Race-crimes, Child labour,

Roma people in Slovakia, Ukraine war, Palestinian war,

Yemen war, Gender-violence, LGBTQI+ rights, Abortion rights, Drug policy, Gender ideology + education, Religion in schools, Religion+state -financing, Free speech vs

regulation of the internet, Climate change, Banning ignition engine,

Future: Water wars?, Fuel wars? Climate refugees,

Participants will have to brainstorm societal/local/global issues or conflicts of past, present and potentially future. 5-10 minutes for each past, present and future.

Pax will try to put labels on those issues and comment on them.

Questions:

- What are the common opinions on this topics
- Are there some intersections - problems that occurred in the past and are still relevant

Flipchart, markers

Have 3 flipcharts blank prepared past/present/future

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Were there problems/conflicts that are not relevant today? Why? Observations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Problems are results of current circumstances There is usually more than one perspective
16:45h-17:25h (40 min)	Why is this a problem? (3-4 equally sized groups) Problems: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> LGBTQI+ Israeli-Palestine conflict Women's Suffrage Civil right movement in the US Climate Change Pax will be divided into groups and each group will be given a specific previously mentioned problem. Each group will have to prepare a flipchart presentation with information such as when and where does the problem originate; Development of the problems over past years/months/days. Suggest their own solution or comment on why they don't think it has a solution. Pax will have 20 minutes to prepare the flipchart and each group will have 5 minutes to present it and have a discussion about the suggested solution. Questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Would you support this solution?
